Business Philanthropy Award

Last week at our 6th annual National Philanthropy Luncheon ACF presented its first Business Philanthropy Award sponsored by ACOC to Valley Carriers

Ltd. Erin Parkes, when accepting the award, recalled her grandfather's advice that a business should always give back to the community. Learn more about how Valley Carrier's and its employees support Abbotsford here.

Alan and Vivian Trethewey Youth Philanthropy Award

Two years ago ACF created the Alan and Vivian Trethewey Youth Philanthropy Award to acknowledge Alan and Vivian for their leadership role in starting the Foundation in 1979. This year's award was won by Tripat Sandhu and Jaspreet Sahota, the founders of the Sikh Sewa International Society of Youth (SSISY) for the work it has done supporting organizations like the Salvation Army and the Abbotsford Food Bank.

Kornelsen Family Donor Advised Fund

Dr. Jeff and Bonnie Kornelsen recently created a donor advised fund as a way of giving back to their community. Income from the fund will support women recovering from addiction and in need of shelter. Learn more about creating an endowment fund.
